The UCLA Career Center is much more than “a place to go to find a job” when you’re ready to graduate. In fact, we are here for you from the first day you arrive at UCLA! Throughout your academic career, the Career Center can help you increase your knowledge of the world of work through the resources and services we provide in order to meet your career development needs. Through counseling, workshops, and use of our various resources and services, you can build your knowledge about career development in the United States, in a timely and effective way. The world of work is full of career options and with so many choices, it can be challenging to focus, but no worries – we are here to help you!

career.ucla.edu
501 Westwood Plaza, Strathmore Building, North Entrance, Second & Third Floors

The UCLA Career Center can help you to:

- Gain a better understanding of your skills, interests, and personality — and learn how they relate to your career options
- Increase your knowledge of the job and internship search process — including writing effective resumes, cover letters, and thank you notes
- Access BruinView™ for internships, jobs, mock interviews, workshops, and employer information sessions
- Learn about the process of applying to graduate and / or professional school
- Write an effective personal statement, manage your letters of reference, improve your networking and interviewing skills, prepare for career fairs, and much more.

In Partnership with

UCLA
Dashew Center for International Students and Scholars
A Department of Student Affairs

DCiSS
for international students & scholars