Apply for the 2015-2016 Peer Advisor Paid Internship at the UCLA Career Center!

Are you interested in helping UCLA students navigate their career paths while developing your own interpersonal and leadership skills? Then apply for a Peer Advisor Internship at the UCLA Career Center. The 2015-2016 Peer Advisor program takes place from September 2015-June 2016.

The UCLA Career Center’s Peer Advisor Internship Program trains UCLA undergraduate students to act as peer guides and advisors for the Center’s resources and services. Training for the program will provide you with the skills to deliver a range of career services to your fellow Bruins, including:

- Delivering presentations to student organizations or classes
- Conducting resume critiques and mock interviews
- Advising students about career resources
- Promoting the Career Center via social media
- Representing the Career Center at a variety of on-campus events.

Application Deadline: Tuesday, April 28, 2015
