You Chose Your Major, Now What?
Internships and the Two-Year Career Plan

A Workshop for UCLA Transfer Students

Tuesday, May 14
3-4:30pm, UCLA Career Center, Third floor, Conference Room B

As a transfer student and new Bruin, you have already chosen your major and before you know it, you’ll be graduating UCLA. But your career path may not necessarily be determined by your major alone and we want to help give you options to consider. Join us in this amazing workshop and find out how to get an internship, get tips on improving your resume and interviewing skills, and learn how the Career Center can assist you in planning these important next two years.

Register today by going to BruinView™ at career.ucla.edu/BruinView. After you log in, go to the Workshops tab and register.

If you don’t have a BruinView™ account, set up a new one by going to career.ucla.edu/BruinView. See you there!
