Navigating Your Career in the Public Health Sector for International Graduate Students

Tuesday, January 21, 2014
12-1pm, Room 41-268 CHS

As an international student seeking a career in the public health sector, you may be exploring the many career options you have available and considering your options in this vast field. Join us in this elaborate workshop and learn about your legal employment options, ways on exploring various career avenues in the private, non-profit, and industry jobs where your skills and qualifications are sought. Enhance your chances for employment through the resources and information to be shared and what you have to offer these diverse organizations. Join us for this very informative workshop geared to introduce you to the steps leading your career development.

Register online through BruinView™ at career.ucla.edu/BruinView.

Questions? Email us at ccadmin@career.ucla.edu
The Dashew Center and UCLA Career Center present

Career Workshops for International Students
Winter 2014 This series of workshops is designed for international students at UCLA who are interested in career exploration.

One Stop Resume and Navigating the Career Fair
Thursday, January 9, 2:30-4:30pm, Career Center, Third Floor, Conference Room
This is a fantastic time to add a New Year's Resolution and get a job or internship! Would you like to polish your resume? And learn the best ways to navigate the Career Center's jobs and internships fairs? Then don’t miss this informative workshop! We will show you how to “market” yourself to employers, handle your career first (what to do before, during, and after), and practice your “elevator speech.” Help yourself get the competitive edge in this challenging economy. Register online today through BruinView™ at career.ucla.edu/BruinView

Navigating Your Career in the Public Health Sector for International Graduate Students
Tuesday, January 21, 12-1pm, 41-268 CHS
As an international student seeking a career in the public health sector, you may be exploring the many career options you have available and considering your options in this vast field. Join us in this elaborate workshop and learn about your legal employment options, ways on exploring various career avenues in the private, non-profit, and industry jobs where your skills and qualifications are sought. Enhance your chances for employment through the resources and information to be shared and what you have to offer these diverse organizations. Register online today through BruinView™ at career.ucla.edu/BruinView

Going Global and Employment Options for F-1 Students
Thursday, January 30, 10-11:30am, Career Center, Third Floor, Conference Room
Thursday, March 6, 10-11:30am, Career Center, Third Floor, Conference Room
Thinking of applying to jobs globally? Considering jobs locally? Domestically? If so, this is the workshop for you! Going Global is an online resource providing country-specific career and employment information, including world-wide internship and job postings, H1B employer listings, corporate profiles, and career resources for over 30 countries. The site also offers access to more than 600,000 internship and job listings within the USA and around the world. Join us to learn how to use this new Resource! Also, learn about the work authorizations that you need for internships and for employment after you graduate, such as Curricular Practical Training (CPT) and Optional Practical Training (OPT). We will discuss ideal timelines to assist you plan your remaining quarters at UCLA! Register online today through BruinView™ at career.ucla.edu/BruinView

The American Interview
Thursday, February 27, 3:30-5pm, Career Center, Second Floor
Are you looking for ways to improve your interviewing skills? Do you think you may need more information on how culture plays a role in the job or internship search process? Would you like to learn how to effectively communicate with employers and become more successful in the job or internship market during these competitive times? Register online today through BruinView™ at career.ucla.edu/BruinView

Additional workshops, counseling, and career help are available at the UCLA Career Center. Come by and visit us! Questions? Email snabati@career.ucla.edu. For more information, visit career.ucla.edu and www.internationalcenter.ucla.edu *Before applying for any internship or job position contact a DCISS counselor to make certain that you are complying with your visa regulations.